

Prince of Peace Book Club Field Trip National Underground Railroad Freedom Center

The POP Book Club is going on the road again!

Join us on a field trip to the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center in Cincinnati, Ohio. The mission of the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center is to reveal stories of freedom's heroes, from the era of the Underground Railroad to contemporary times, challenging and inspiring everyone to take courageous steps of freedom today." The center is also involved in ongoing dialogue on freedom and human rights.

Saturday, June 3, 2017

Freedom Center Tour at 12:00 pm

Please arrive at least 15 minutes early at 11:45 a.m.

Cost of tour: $12

The tour can accommodate only 18-24 people, so reservations are on a first come/first served basis. To reserve your spot, please reply to Sharon Morris (skmorris1@gmail.com or 614.761.0895) before May 17 with the following:

1. Number of reservations
2. Your check for $12 per person made payable to Prince of Peace
3. Whether you'd prefer to travel to Cincinnati on your own or in a carpool Saturday morning, or whether you'd like to go early on Friday night.

Some other details to consider:

- Some people might travel to Cincinnati on Friday night because the Reds are at home playing the Atlanta Braves at 7:05 p.m.
- If people want to carpool from church, cars should leave church at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday at the latest.
- If people want to stop somewhere on the way to Cincinnati for a late breakfast/early lunch, Kenwood might be a good place to stop, because I'm not sure what is around the Freedom Center. Kenwood has First Watch, Panera, Bob Evans, Starbucks, etc. Cars should leave church around 8:00 a.m. on Saturday.
- The National Underground Railroad Freedom Center is not part of the National Parks.
