Little Shepherds Mission Statement and Goals

Little Shepherds is dedicated to providing loving care and early Christian education to the children of our congregation and community, as well as to support families in the discipleship of their children. We seek to provide a Christian atmosphere where children can discover a loving God as they begin to develop life competencies. Our purpose is to provide a safe, warm, nurturing, loving Christian environment that promotes the development of each child. We tend to the child's spiritual, emotional, social, cognitive, and physical needs. We offer creative play and exploration; loving, nurturing teachers; age appropriate play space and equipment.

Care and Nurturing of children – Teachers are responsible for the well being and safety of each child in the group to which they are assigned and for meeting each child's basic needs. With the toddler group diapers and clothing shall be checked regularly and changed accordingly. Staff shall assist with the needs of children with hand washing, toilet needs, and basic hygiene, promoting self-help skills as the goal. Staff shall acknowledge and respond appropriately to children who are crying or who are in distress. Children will be supervised at all times.

Spiritual Development – Teachers will lift each child up in prayer, asking God to guide and nurture this precious disciple. In the classroom, we will proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, and let each child know that he or she is a beloved child of God and a follower of our Lord Jesus Christ. Through prayer, reading of the Word, and the sharing of faith, we will shepherd these children in their Christian lives.

Our classrooms are places where children

- witness faith in daily life
- form Christ-centered relationships of trust and affirmation
- experience belonging in a Christian community
- enjoy the opportunity to question and explore
- receive appropriate, sensitive, and thoughtful responses
- give and receive love, forgiveness, and faithfulness.

Faith Life – We proclaim the love of Christ and acknowledge that each child in our care is a child of God. We teach our students to love God with all their hearts and all their minds and to love others abundantly. The Lord is our Shepherd, and we are called to be God's shepherds in the world.

Social/Emotional Development – Our program is designed to help each child feel loved and accepted by his/her peers, teachers and our God. Our goal is to establish a sense of community in our classrooms, knowing that together we are the body of Christ our Lord. Children will play together and learn together in an environment of mutual trust and respect. We believe that children are capable of empathy, that they are good problem solvers, that their ideas are valuable and that they need to be in affirming relationships with others. We will provide an atmosphere conducive to creative play and exploration. Each child is a wonderful creation of God and a member with us in God's family.

Cognitive/Physical Development – Children learn by doing and by being allowed to succeed in their own explorations. We provide a meaningful, developmentally appropriate learning environment. Our curriculum includes time for free choice, play and structured learning centers. Through play and exploration, the children will experience a variety of multi-sensory and physical activities that will increase their knowledge, improve their language development, and improve their fine motor and large motor skills.

NAEYC has been in operation since 1985 and is committed to bringing every childcare center up to standards of excellence and quality early childhood education for all children. NAEYC recognizes that good early childhood programs promote learning and development. Through Action for Children in Franklin County our staff has benefited from training and resources offered under the guidance of NAEYC.

Family Engagement Model

Little Shepherds is committed to work with families in supporting their child's growth and development by providing an age appropriate experience within an age appropriate classroom and fostering family to school relations. Parents are the primary educators of their children and the main decision maker for their child's educational experience. Active parent participation in the educational process is critical to each child's success, and Little Shepherds provides a variety of opportunities throughout the year to promote connections/interaction between families, teachers, and the greater community. Our goal is to create maximum parent investment in the educational process by helping parents to become their child's greatest advocate throughout their educational experience. We encourage parents to support their child's educational experience by following the class curriculum calendar, attending Parent Conferences, and a variety of activities that are listed below. Parent interaction is performed with respect to each family's diversity and cultural/ethnic background.

We are a NAEYC center. We follow the 10 standards of practice as our formal model, which guides our program, our professional development, interactions with families and children.

NAEYC Standard 1: Relationships

The program promotes positive relationships among all children and adults. It encourages each child's sense of individual worth and belonging as part of a community and fosters each child's ability to contribute as a responsible community member. Warm, sensitive, and responsive relationships help children feel secure. The safe and secure environments built by positive relationships help children thrive physically, benefit from learning experiences, and cooperate and get along with others.

What to look for in a program:

- Children and adults feel welcome when they visit the program. Teachers help new children adjust to the program environment and make friends with other children.
- Teaching staff engage in warm, friendly conversations with the children and encourage and recognize children's work and accomplishments.
- Children are encouraged to play and work together.
- Teachers help children resolve conflicts by identifying feelings, describing problems, and trying alternative solutions. Teaching staff never physically punish children.

NAEYC Standard 2: Curriculum

The program implements a curriculum that is consistent with its goals for children and promotes learning and development in each of the following areas: social, emotional, physical, language, and cognitive. A well-planned written curriculum provides a guide for teachers and administrators. It helps them work together and balance different activities and approaches to maximize children's learning and development. The curriculum includes goals for the content that children are learning, planned activities linked to these goals, daily schedules and routines, and materials to be used.

NAEYC and the NAEYC Accreditation system do not prescribe a specific curriculum; programs can design their own or choose a commercially available curriculum that meets NAEYC's guidelines.

What to look for in a program:

- Ask about the program's curriculum and how it addresses all aspects of child development. The curriculum should not focus on just one area of development.
- Children are given opportunities to learn and develop through exploration and play, and teachers have opportunities to work with individual children and small groups on specific skills.
- Materials and equipment spark children's interest and encourage them to experiment and learn.
- Activities are designed to help children get better at reasoning, solving problems, getting along with others, using language, and developing other skills.
- Infants and toddlers play with toys and art materials that "do something" based on children's actions, such as jack-in-the-box, cups that fit inside one another, and playdough.

NAEYC Standard 3: Teaching

The program uses developmentally, culturally, and linguistically appropriate and effective teaching approaches that enhance each child's learning and development in the context of the curriculum goals. Children have different learning styles, needs, capacities, interests, and backgrounds. By recognizing these differences and using instructional approaches that are appropriate for each child, teachers and staff help all children learn.

What to look for in a program:

- Teachers carefully supervise all children.
- Teachers provide time each day for indoor and outdoor activities (weather permitting) and organize time and space so that children have opportunities to work or play individually and in groups.
- Children's recent work (for example, art and emergent writing) is displayed in the classroom to help children reflect on and extend their learning.
- Teachers modify strategies and materials to respond to the needs and interests of individual children, engaging each child and enhancing learning.

NAEYC Standard 4: Assessment of Child Progress

The program is informed by ongoing systematic, formal, and informal assessment approaches to provide information on children's learning and development. These assessments occur within the context of reciprocal communications with families and with sensitivity to the cultural contexts in which children develop.

Assessment results benefit children by informing sound decisions, teaching, and program improvement. Assessments help teachers plan appropriately challenging curriculum and tailor instruction that responds to each child's strengths and needs. Assessments can also help teachers identify children with disabilities and ensuring that they receive needed services.

What to look for in a program:

- The program supports children's learning using a variety of assessment methods, such as observations, checklists, and rating scales.
- Assessment methods are appropriate for each child's age and level of development and encompass all areas of development, including math, science, and other cognitive skills; language; social-emotional; and physical.
- Teachers use assessment methods and information to design goals for individual children and monitor their progress, as well as to improve the program and its teaching strategies.
- Families receive information about their child's development and learning on a regular basis, including through meetings or conferences.

NAEYC Standard 5: Health

The program promotes the nutrition and health of children and protects children and staff from illness and injury. Children must be healthy and safe in order to learn and grow. Programs must be healthy and safe to support children's healthy development.

What to look for in a program:

- Teaching staff have training in pediatric first aid.
- Infants are placed on their backs to sleep.
- The program has policies regarding regular hand washing and routinely cleans and sanitizes all surfaces in the facility.
- There is a clear plan for responding to illness, including how to decide whether a child needs to go home and how families will be notified.
- We recommend that Snacks and meals are nutritious; food is sent from home with each child for snack and lunchtime.

NAEYC Standard 6: Teachers

The program employs and supports a teaching staff with the educational qualifications, knowledge, and professional commitment necessary to promote children's learning and development and to support families' diverse needs and interests.

Teachers who have specific preparation, knowledge, and skills in child development and early childhood education are more likely to provide positive interactions, richer language experiences, and quality learning environments.

What to look for in a program:

- Teaching staff have educational qualifications and specialized knowledge about young children and early childhood development. Ask, for example, how many teachers have Child Development Associate (CDA) credentials, associate's degrees, or higher degrees.
- The program makes provisions for ongoing staff development, including orientations for new staff and opportunities for continuing education.
- Teaching staff have training in the program's curriculum and work as a teaching team.

NAEYC Standard 7: Families

The program establishes and maintains collaborative relationships with each child's family to foster children's development in all settings. These relationships are sensitive to family composition, language, and culture. To support children's optimal learning and development, programs need to establish relationships with families based on mutual trust and respect, involve families in their children's educational growth, and encourage families to fully participate in the program.

What to look for in a program:

- All families are welcome and encouraged to be involved in all aspects of the program.
- Teachers and staff talk with families about their family structure and their views on childrearing and use that information to adapt the curriculum and teaching methods to the families served.
- The program uses a variety of strategies to communicate with families, including family conferences, new family orientations, and individual conversations.
- Program information—including policies and operating procedures—is provided in a language that families can understand.

NAEYC Standard 8: Community Relationships

The program establishes relationships with and uses the resources of the children's communities to support the achievement of program goals. Relationships with agencies and institutions in the community can help a program achieve its goals and connect families with resources that support children's healthy development and learning.

What to look for in a program:

- The program connects with and uses museums, parks, libraries, zoos, and other resources in the community.
- Representatives from community programs, such as musical performers and local artists, are invited to share their interests and talents with the children.
- The staff develops professional relationships with community agencies and organizations that further the program's capacity to meet the needs and interests of children and families.

NAEYC Standard 9: Physical Environment

The program has a safe and healthful environment that provides appropriate and well-maintained indoor and outdoor physical environments. The environment includes facilities, equipment, and materials to facilitate child and staff learning and development.

An organized, properly equipped, and well-maintained program environment facilitates the learning, comfort, health, and safety of the children and adults who use the program.

What to look for in a program:

- The facility is designed so that staff can supervise all children by sight and sound.
- The program has necessary furnishings, such as hand-washing sinks, child-size chairs and tables, and cots, cribs, beds, or sleeping pads.
- A variety of materials and equipment appropriate for children's ages and stages of development is available and kept clean, safe, and in good repair.
- Outdoor play areas have fences or natural barriers that prevent access to streets and other hazards.
- First-aid kits, fire extinguishers, fire alarms, and other safety equipment are installed and available.

NAEYC Standard 10: Leadership and Management

The program effectively implements policies, procedures, and systems that support stable staff and strong personnel, and fiscal, and program management so all children, families, and staff have high-quality experiences.

Effective management and operations, knowledgeable leaders, and sensible policies and procedures are essential to building a quality program and maintaining the quality over time.

What to look for in a program:

- The program administrator has the necessary educational qualifications, including a degree from a four-year college and specialized courses in early childhood education, child development, or related fields.
- The program is licensed and/or regulated by the applicable state agency.
- The program's written policies and procedures are shared with families and address issues such as the program's philosophy and curriculum goals, policies on guidance and discipline, and health and safety procedures.
- Appropriate group sizes and ratios of teaching staff to children are maintained (for example, infants—no more than 8 children in a group, with 2 teaching staff; toddlers—no more than 12 children in a group, with 2 teaching staff; and 4-year-olds—no more than 20 children in a group, with 2 teaching staff).

FAMILY INVOLVEMENT

Our goal is to facilitate relationship building within the families by providing the following opportunities to be involved in their child's classroom and child development:

Classrooms will plan the following with families to engage in the classroom

- Arrival drop off – parents assist the director and teachers in greeting the children at arrival, assisting them to the classrooms from their parents who use the drop off service.

- Making play dough for our sensory tables all year long
- Attending Parent Teacher conference, offered in November and March; assisting in child care area watching one another's children while parents conference with teachers.

Description: Our three year old program is designed for the first time preschooler. Although a three-year old is beginning to want some independence from their caregiver, they still need lots of reassurance, support and a safe environment to explore and play. Three year olds will be introduced to Bible Stories, colors, shapes, numbers, recognizing their name, being a classroom helper, and much more. They will learn that God made the world and made them special too.

Please label all belongings. Preschool will provide each student with a tote to bring back n forth to school. Please send in a small healthy snack for snack time, we will serve water. We suggest you use a small reusable container for snack, one your child can open; lunch boxes are not necessary.

We will share our professional classroom observations with the parents on a regular and continuous basis. A monthly class calendar is sent home with specific information from your child's teacher. Little Shepherds News is sent by email, highlighting upcoming church, school or classroom events; copies are available in office.

Progress Reports & Developmental Assessments – Conference in November

We schedule one formal conference time in November and you can request a conference any time you wish, just speak with your teacher to arrange a good time. The November conference is planned as a get to know. Written progress reports come home November and April. We are dedicated to ongoing communication with parents if we have any concern regarding your child's physical, social, emotional, or cognitive development.

Developmental Objectives - Each preschooler enrolled will be assessed by the teaching staff on an ongoing basis in areas of developmental skills and accomplishments. Lists of our objectives for development are included at the back of this handbook for your review. Our teachers follow the Teaching Strategies GOLD Objectives for Development and Learning as they plan activities and build lesson plans. In situations where teachers identify challenging behavior, parents will be asked for more information so that we can provide the support necessary to support the child's appropriate behavior and provide the child with information on acceptable behavior. At the start of preschool, families are provided a copy of Agnes and Stages Questionnaire a parent completed child monitoring system for development. Kindergarten screenings will be done within 30 days of attendance during class by our kindergarten teachers.

Developmental Screening and referral – We are not a diagnostic or therapeutic center. We do not have the training qualifications to evaluate or screen for developmental delays, speech n hearing or challenging behaviors. Teachers will address challenging behaviors and provide information to families, and encourage families to seek professionals to address behaviors. We will work with outside agencies and professionals and if determined we can reasonably accommodate we will incorporate plans to help child overcome difficulties in the classroom. We believe early intervention is the key to a child’s school success whether they remain enrolled in our center or receive school district services and placement.

DAILY Participation

Preparing Your Child for Participation - It is normal for your child to have some fears and misgivings about being away from you. Children, like adults, need time to get used to new situations. Try to prepare your child for the changes as far in advanced as possible. Discuss any concerns. Talk to your child about the new people your child will meet and the new things he/she will be doing at Preschool. If you are enthusiastic soon your child will be too. You know your child best, take the time in the morning they need to get ready to be away from you. Make certain they are well rested and have had a good breakfast before arriving at school. It is also helpful if you have them take care of their restroom needs at home before coming to school each day. Arrive to school on time or early, some children have a hard time entering the classroom late, since everyone else is already engaged.

Little Lambs Toddler Classes – Please note* indicates program is Not for the toddler class.

Please understand we will keep program planning age appropriate; we hope you will look forward to your toddler becoming a preschooler, your 3 year old becoming a Pre-K student and participating in program specials when it is more age appropriate.

We use crayons, play dough, washable paint, chalk, and washable markers. We plan large muscle play daily, children are encouraged to run and jump. Boots, sandals, and slip-ons are inappropriate. If your child is wearing inappropriate shoes, he/she may be excluded from this type of play for their own safety.

Outdoor Play – We will plan outdoor play if it is 45° and DRY. Always dress your child for the weather with sunscreen, coats, gloves, and hats. The teachers determine if it is dry enough to play outdoors; they may also take the class on a short walk around the church premises.

Toilet Trained – students attending our 3 yr old and older classrooms (Lambs & Rainbows, etc) Must be toilet trained. This means that your student is able to tell the teacher they need to use the restroom, is able to manage their clothing and toilet wiping needs, is able to flush and wash their hands. Our older classrooms do not have a diapering area, our restrooms are across the hallway from the classrooms, licensing requires children attending these classrooms to be toilet trained. Please allow your child to practice skills at home, that way they are prepared and feel more confident at school.

Diapering for toddler classes – Our toddler classrooms have diapering areas. Teachers will check diapers regularly and change soiled diapers immediately; teacher and child will wash hands before and after diapering. ## F. HEALTH AND SAFETY

Child Guidance and Behavior Management

At Little Shepherds PreSchool we will work together to show respect for self and others. Each teacher in charge of a group of children shall be responsible for their classroom management and discipline. The policy on discipline is to provide constructive, age appropriate child guidance and management techniques. We intend that this experience be fun and nurturing for your child. We will do all we can to build and sustain a loving, caring environment for each child. When conflict does arise, we will work to redirect the child, use separation from the problem if conflict persists. Situations involving discipline will be handled in a calm and consistent manner throughout the preschool. The teachers will help children involved to verbalize what's happened, to identify their feelings, and to generate acceptable solutions.

Ohio Job & Family Services defines acceptable methods of guiding and managing, teachers shall:

- Recognize, encourage and praise children's acceptable behavior
- Be positive and constructive
- Use fair and consistent rules
- Supervise with an attitude of understanding
- Communicate clear directions and expectations
- Assist children with problem solving
- Encourage children to control their own behavior and cooperate with others
- Help children feel successful at tasks and give options for other tasks if one chosen proves too difficult
- Notify children of change of activity several minutes prior to transition
- Protect children from abuse and neglect

Children will never be isolated or physically harmed. There will be no cruel, harsh, corporal punishments or any unusual punishments such as, but not limited to, punching, pinching, spanking, shaking, or biting. No child shall be humiliated or subjected to profane language, threats, derogatory remarks about himself or his family, or other verbal abuse. No physical restraints will be used to confine a child.

Ohio Job & Family Services defines managing unacceptable behavior, teachers shall:

- Use developmentally appropriate techniques suitable to the children's ages and circumstances
- Redirect children, talk with children about the situation, and state options
- Use appropriate separation from the situation only as necessary
- Speak to children so that they understand what is unacceptable is the child's behavior, NOT the children himself or his feelings
- Communicate and consult with parents or guardians in implementing any specific behavior management plan

School Initiated – Withdraw of Child

Should a child's behavior cause harm or upsets other children in the group, the student may be removed from the group. Program staff will document incidents and work with the parents to further attempt to resolve the situation. The Director at Little Shepherds may spend one on one time with the student; separation will be brief in duration and appropriate to the child's age and circumstances, however the director may determine to send the child home early from the program on the day of the incident. In this circumstance it has been determined that the child remaining at school may be detrimental to his/her growth or development or impact the development of other children. The director and the teaching staff will communicate and consult with parents or guardians regarding behavioral concerns. The school will request a meeting with the parent to determine continued attendance. The parent's cooperation and involvement in seeking solutions to improve the student's behavior is key to a child's continued involvement at Little Shepherds. Parents will be recommended to seek outside services within a specific timeframe to help the student achieve acceptable behaviors; i.e. medical services, psychology services, behavioral consultant services or other resource. If acceptable and appropriate behavior cannot be achieved, Little Shepherds will reserve the right to suspend or exclude any student if in our opinion continued attendance is not in the best interest or the well being of the student, the class group and/or the teaching staff.

Safety Policy and Procedures

Care of Children with Handicapping or Health Conditions or Difficult Behaviors

- Child Medical/Physical Care Plan; ODJFS Form # 01236
- Children with Food Allergies
- Children with Difficult Behaviors

Ohio Department of Job and Family Services requires that any preschool providing for the special needs of a child who is handicapped or has special health conditions do so in accordance with a written medical/physical care plan for the child. We are committed to caring for each child who seeks our services. We will work with parents, physicians, and other health professionals to meet the particular needs of children with difficult behaviors, handicaps or special health conditions. Staff will receive training and guidance, as is required on an individual basis.

In accordance with Public Law 94-142, the Education for All Handicapped Children Law, it will be determined if our program fits the need of each individual child who seeks our services. Research tells us repeatedly about the benefits of inclusion for the handicapped child, as well as, the non-handicapped child.

Parents must provide a completed Child Medical/Physical Care plan ODJFS prescribed form # 01236 in the event that a child in an emergency situation needs medication. An example may be a child who has diabetes, seizures, food allergies, reaction to bee stings, or asthma. Parents must sign Little Shepherds release in case of report of food allergies regarding their child.

Child who is attending that exhibits difficult behaviors will be referred to community professionals for evaluation; should there be a written plan to improve behaviors, parents must give a copy of plan to the preschool for review. We are not a diagnostic center, we do not have the training qualifications to evaluate or screen for developmental delays, speech n hearing or challenging behaviors. Teachers will address challenging behaviors and provide information to families, and encourage families to seek professionals to address behaviors. We will work with outside agencies and professionals and incorporate plans to help child overcome difficulties in the classroom.

A copy of the written, signed, and dated care plan instructions will be kept in the child's file in the Preschool Office, in the classroom teacher's child file, and the locked medical box where the medication will be stored in the Preschool Office. In extreme instances where time would be crucial in an emergency, the teacher may have the medication on hand while the child is in her care. Parents or guardians must review this plan with the staff assigned to care for the child before the child's first day of enrollment. Only staff members trained by the parent or guardian or certified professional shall be permitted to perform medical procedures.

Administration of Medication - Preschool staff will not administer non-prescription medications or medications prescribed to treat short-term illnesses; Syrup of Ipecac will not be used pursuant to OAC 5101:2-12-36 First aid supplies/procedures.

Medication stored at preschool for food allergy, bee stings, or asthma must be in original packaging with prescription labeled for the student. The center will not accept medication that is expired. Each medication must have ODJFS prescribed form # 01217 signed by physician; box 1 and box 2. Medication will be stored the portable bin in preschool office clearly labeled for the child. This rule applies to all children enrolled, toddlers through school age children.

Medication brought back and forth to preschool with child on their attendance day

For food allergy, bee stings, or asthma must be in original packaging with prescription labeled for the student. Each medication must have ODJFS prescribed form #01217 signed by physician, box 1 and box 2. Medication must not be expired and be in a separate bag then the school tote; teachers must check each day that child brought emergency medication and put medication tote out of the reach of children, but kept nearby in case of emergency. School children are not permitted to maintain the possession of inhalers or medication needed for emergency.

Management of Communicable Disease Policy

The center Director and designated staff members have been trained in the Prevention, Recognition and Management of Communicable Disease. All staff is provided training in proper hand washing and disinfection procedures prior to working with the children. Each child in attendance will be given a daily health check by the Director or trained staff member. The daily health check is a visual observation of the child's general health. Please use good judgment regarding your child's health and school attendance. If a child vomits, or is suspected of having a communicable disease or of being too ill to participate in school activities, the child will be accompanied by the teacher to the Director. The child will remain isolated from the group of children, but with the Director or designated adult staff, until the parent or designated person can pick up the child. The school reserves the right to cancel a class in the event of multiple reported illnesses. The school will make every attempt to inform parents of that plan.

Reporting a Communicable Disease – Parents are required to let us know if your child has been diagnosed by medical professional with a communicable disease; your name will remain confidential. Parents will be notified of every reported communicable disease incident within the next day. An email alert may be sent and each classroom will post outside the classroom door incidents of diagnosed communicable disease within their classroom and, if necessary, within the school. Parents can request an informational sheet explaining symptoms to watch for, incubation period, recommended treatment, etc. The school reserves the right to request a doctor note releasing a child to return to school after a serious illness.

Teacher Illness - Ill teachers will not be in school. Substitutes will be called to assume classroom responsibilities so that the children will not be exposed to infection. If a teacher becomes ill while at school, they will be sent home immediately and a substitute will be assigned.

Guidelines for Keeping your Child Home

Parents know their children better than anyone else. A child who doesn't feel well will not enjoy school and is much better off at home; no matter what special event is scheduled. If children come to school ill, they are also exposing the other children and the teachers. If your child is going to be absent, please call the school or send a text message and let us know at 614-209-4554.

Often the first signs of illness are irritability and inactivity. Be aware of changes in your child's behavior. When your child says, "I don't feel good" on the way to school, it is difficult to make an informed yet quick decision as to whether to send you child to school. Hopefully, the following guidelines will make this decision a little easier. These are symptoms that require the school to isolate and immediately discharge your child.

Do not send your child to school if they have:

1. Fever of 100 degrees or greater (the child should be free of fever for 24 hours without medication before returning to school.)
2. rashes or spots of unknown origin
3. an earache or draining ear
4. diarrhea or vomiting within the past 24 hours
5. a sore throat or difficulty swallowing
6. a persistent cough, wheezing, or difficulty breathing
7. a persistent or severe headache
8. eyes that are crusty and/or red or yellow in color
9. Redness of the eye or eyelid, thick and purulent (pus) discharge, matted eyelashes, burning, itching or eye pain
10. a stiff neck with elevated temperature
11. evidence of lice, scabies, or other parasitic infestations (child may return after first treatment)
12. untreated, infected skin patches
13. nasal discharge that is green or yellow in color
14. unusually dark urine and/or gray or white stool
15. extreme fatigue or fussiness which could indicate the beginning of an illness
(The disease is most often contagious 24 hours before the child shows signs of illness)
16. Antibiotic prescribed for your child must be taken at least 24 hours before returning to school.
17. Nonprescription medication must be taken at least 24 hours before returning to school

HELPFUL TIPS in keeping our classrooms healthy:

Wash Your Hands!

Cover Your Cough!

Stay home if your child isn't up to playing, is congested and sleepy!

Wash Your Hands!

We understand that the common cold can last for weeks; please try to teach your child to cough into their sleeve or elbow; have them practice using a tissue to wipe their own nose; allow them to practice washing their hands as much as possible!

G. Little Shepherds Assessment Process & Goals

On the following pages you will find our developmental assessment process, age appropriate developmental checklists and information for family involvement. These checklists are aligned with Creative Curriculum Developmental Continuum and State of Ohio Early Learning and Development Standards.

Intentional Planning, observation, evaluation and documentation

Our program is a faith based and play based experience for children. We believe children learn through play and exploration. The teachers follow a curriculum that provides many activities which support your child's growth and development. Periodic assessments are completed so that our staff can plan an appropriate learning experience for each and every child. On an ongoing basis through observation, evaluation and documentation of your child's experiences our teaching staff plan intentionally for activities that will support your child's overall development. Families can request to review results of assessments at any stage, however written Child Progress and Planning Reports provided to you in the Fall and Spring. On the following pages you can see a list of skills for each age level that provides a guide for curriculum planning. This developmental information is a helpful tool for families when setting goals for their children. Together we can support your child's learning experience.

Social/Emotional Development: children's feelings about themselves, the development of responsibility, and their ability to relate positively to others. Arrival, routine schedule, class rules, making choices to play and making friends are ways we plan to support your child's development in this area.

Language Development: children's ability to communicate through words, both spoken and written. Peer interaction and language happens all through the day. The teachers are speaking with your children and giving them words to use during art, play, circle time, story time, music, center time, all day long!

Cognitive Development: children's thinking skills, the development of logic and thinking, problem solving skills and approaches to learning. Preschool math is everywhere! We are counting and scooping and pouring with many hands on activities. Preschool science is sand and water play, working with play dough and paint. There is so much to discover age 2-6!

Physical Development: children's gross and fine motor development. Our indoor and outdoor playgrounds are designed to help with gross motor skill building. Children can run and climb and work on balance and movement. In the classroom the children are working on fine motor skills by sorting, painting, using art materials, using writing materials, sensory table materials, building with puzzles and blocks. All of these activities help them work on controlling small muscles in their hands and gaining eye hand movement.

Approaches Toward Learning: children bring behaviors, dispositions, and attitudes to social interactions and learning experiences. This includes initiation, curiosity, motivation to participate in new and varied challenges. These behaviors are fundamental to children's ability to take advantage of learning opportunities, to set, plan and achieve goals for themselves. These factors are consistent predictors of academic success.

Child Progress and Planning Reports are for confidential use only:
Original is kept in child's file. Parent receives a copy for fall & spring.
Additional copy only released with written permission from parents only.
